After a residence of five years in the country naturalizing them, citizens are not liable choice to represent us in the next try, except in cases of desertion from the organized military or naval service.

TAXATION. It seems probable that the Committee on Ways and Means will report changes in the tax bill in respect to the manner of collecting the whiskey tax without, in There being no further business effect, raising or lowering the tax. The attempt in the House to ch nge the special tax on wifesale liquor dealers, fixed at fifty dollars, failed. There is no projability of the Committee's falling in with the proposition of the tobacco dealers to render a uniform tax of sixteen cents per pound on tobacco.
